- ☐ the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international preliminary examination (under Rule 55.2 and/or 55.3).

3. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application, the international preliminary examination was carried out on the basis of the sequence listing:

- ☐ contained in the international application in written form.
- ☐ filed together with the international application in computer readable form.
- ☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority in written form.
- ☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority in computer readable form.
- ☐ The statement that the subsequently furnished written sequence listing does not go beyond the disclosure in the international application as filed has been furnished.
- ☐ The statement that the information recorded in computer readable form is identical to the written sequence listing has been furnished.

4. The amendments have resulted in the cancellation of:

- ☐ the description, pages:
- ☐ the claims, Nos.:
- ☐ the drawings, sheets:

Re Item V

Reasoned statement under Rule 66.2(a)(ii) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement.

The present application satisfies the criteria set forth in Article 33(2) PCT because the subject-matter of independent claims 1- 6 involves an inventive step (Rule 65(1) (2) PCT).

1) Claim 1: The invention relates to a flexible and scalable method for handling telecommunication equipment through the control of ATM access networks as further defined in the preamble of claim 1.

The subject-matter of claim 1 differs essentially in that the Board Relay functionality is attributed to any Device processor (DP) and in that the Central Processor (CP) is connected to all the other Device Processor (DP) by simply addressing the messages to the Board Relay and relaying them through it.

These characterizing features solve the problem of reducing the usage of the ATM bandwidth for control purposes as further explained in the description at page2, lines 7 - page 3, line 16. It also improves the scalability and reduce the number of shelves needed in an ICS/ATM system.

2) The dependent claims 2 - 6 are truly dependent on claim 1.
